Quiltmaking 201
Barb Hudak
Skill Level: Beginner
February 9, March 16, April 13 Saturday ~ 11:00am – 1:00pm and May 11, June 8, July 13, August 10, September 14
and October 12

Have you completed Quiltmaking 101? Are you looking for the next project? Quiltmaking 201 is the solution. Using a Marti Michell pattern you will make an 80” x 99” sampler style quilt. You will learn more about measuring, cutting and piecing as you construct two blocks per month. The seventh session will be devoted to completing your quilt top. Be sure to pick up your supply list as soon as possible so you can gather all you need before the first session begins.

Freehand Machine Quilting
Carol Seubert
Skill Level: Beginner
January 23 Wednesday ~ 10:30am – 3:00pm or March 27 Wednesday ~ 10:30am – 3:00pm

Join us for this two-part seminar on machine quilting. In the morning, you will learn machine set up and the basics of using your machine to do freehand machine quilting. We’ll then break for lunch. (You can bring a lunch, or take a break and go out for lunch). In the afternoon, we will put your newfound skills to work, learning different techniques, including a continuous line heart design.
Fee: $26.00

Advanced Freehand Machine Quilting
Carol Seubert
Skill level: Intermediate
February 23 Saturday ~ 10:30am – 3:00pm or April 22 Monday ~ 10:30am – 3:00pm

Have you taken the Freehand Machine Quilting class, practiced those skills and now want to move onto more advanced work? In this class you will learn to do flowers, feathers and various fill patterns to add to your freehand repertoire. You will work on a table runner to practice and showcase your new techniques. You must have taken the Freehand Machine Quilting class and have an extension table for around your free-arm machine in order to take this class.

Western PA Shop Hop Premier Party
Thursday ~ April 18th ~ 10:00am - 9:00pm

Shop Hop continues to be one of the most fun events for quilter’s in Western PA, and this year is sure to be no different! The best time to get a passport for the June event is the first day they are available - at the premier party! Each of the shops participating hosts a party, all different of course. The party at QC will include the unveiling of our fabric selections for the progressive quilt, provide you with your first pattern, and of course include some surprise treats! The passport is still only $5.00, and when purchased at the party makes you a VIQ (Very Important Quilter) during the hop. Get your passport and let the planning begin!
