

Dear Friends,

I realized I was getting a little warm as I sat typing away earlier. I checked in the mirror - my cheeks were actually quite rosy. Then I looked down and realized I still have on the double layers I wore to hit the trail this morning - yes, two shirts, two pairs of running pants, socks... My how time flies when you're engrossed in something! Now that I'm almost ready to send all this information on to you I realize my family might want me to become just as distracted by making dinner!

Hope you can find a few minutes to stitch today - it's lots more fun than the other distractions!

Happy holidays,
Mary Beth

June 20th - 23rd marks the return of the Western PA Shop Hop. You wouldn't want to make the trip without a passport. Why not get yours on the first day they are available - at the premiere party? You will find a party celebrating their arrival on the 19th in each of the twelve shops in this year's hop. At Quilters Corner you can get a look at our 2012 progressive quilt fabric selections, gather the first patterns for the project and enjoy sweets and fabric treats. By purchasing your passport booklet (still only $5.00 each) at the party you
